

Singapore's Best Law Firms 2027

The seventh edition of this annual survey identifies Singapore's 100 best law firms in 23 areas of legal practice. The results are based on more than 12,000 recommendations received from almost 6,000 lawyers, in-house counsel, related professionals and clients. In addition, survey participants were invited to recommend the best law firms in these categories: giving advice to charities and not-for-profit organisations; and offering pro bono services. For the third time, we also feature a list of the most recommended lawyers.

Germany-based Statista undertook the survey, backed by its research capability and established track record, having done similar projects in Britain and Switzerland, among other regions. Its professional approach ensured that the survey was industry-wide in scope and span, enabling project reliability and validating standards. Read the methodology.
